

“Multi-Systemic Approach to Working with the Latinx Community Throughout Its Life Cycle”

Hosted by: The Latino Social Work Coalition and Scholarship Fund in collaboration with the Latinx Social Work Student Organization at NYU

This conference is designed to help professionals working with the Latinx community develop and continue culturally appropriate practices. The objectives are:

1. To identify appropriate strategies on how to support individuals in their current developmental stage that need services
2. To raise awareness among the participants and their clients on recent changes in laws and statutes that may adversely affect services to the Latinx community
3. To provide strategies to promote self-reliance and guidance in dealing with these issues before they arise

Date: March 27th, 2019

Time: Check in at 9:15am. Presentations from 10:00am to 5:00pm.
Breakfast and lunch provided.

Location: NYU Global Center, Grand Hall 5th Floor
238 Thompson St. New York NY 10012

(NYSED and ACE approved for 6 CEU hours awarded, upon completion of evaluation)

Topics:

"Belonging, Membership and Immigration Status - Exploring Deportability and the Impact on the Well-Being of Noncitizens and Their Communities"

“A Not for Profit Response to Addressing the Social Determinants of Health in A Culturally Relevant Way”

"Supporting Young Men of Color Survivors of Violence."

"Language Barriers to Quality Healthcare for Latinx Infants and Children"

“Understanding Our Microaggression When Working with Latinx Families”

“FIVE SESSIONS Play”-The Effects of Policy and Politics on The Latinx Community”

"Ni Una Mas. Not One More “

Registration:

All Day Conference (Non-member)	$85
LSWC Member	$75
Senor Fee (65+, must present Photo ID)	$35
Non- NYU Student (must present Student ID)	$25
NYU Student (Must RSVP)	FREE
Exhibit Table Sponsorship- Half Day	$250
Exhibit Table Sponsorship- Full Day	$500

Register at www.latinosocialwork.org

*Space is limited